

Blume's Academy Studio Katoomba

Workshops & classes coming up July & August 2023

Japanese Bookbinding with Faye Wilson

In this fun, relaxing one day workshop you will be introduced to some of the techniques for creating traditional Japanese style bindings. Faye will guide you through the steps to make a set of notebooks in three sizes, each with a different binding style.

You will also learn some simple printing and collage techniques to create decorative cover papers to make each of the books you make truly unique.

Japanese book binding is a creative way to make your own books or to make gifts for friends and family. It is also a great technique for creating artist or books as works of art.

6 people maximum in group.

Saturday July 8th, 10am–3pm

Make a Sketchbook with Faye Wilson

In this hands on, one day workshop you will be shown how to create a casebound, hardcover sketchbook. The sketchbook will have sewn sections from 300GSM watercolour paper and a hand painted, paper bound, hard cover.

As an added bonus Faye will guide you through the process of creating a bamboo drawing pen and introduce you some of the techniques for drawing with ink.

Once mastered, the techniques you will learn in this unique workshop, can be built upon and used for a variety of creative book making projects.

6 people maximum in group.

Saturday July 29th, 10am–4pm

All materials & a light vegetarian lunch /tea/coffee are all included for $180 p.p
One day events & all levels of experience welcome!
